Dear Parents,

We are bringing back the very successful Kosher Snack Bar $25 Chit (see below). Many students have been regular customers at the Kosher Snack Bar on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. We will also continue to offer a bagel and juice box for $2.00 on Sunday mornings to our Aleph-Hey students during their bagel break. Sometimes, they come hungry but have no money. Never fear... You can buy them a $25 snack bar chit, which we will keep here at Temple Israel for your child to use for snacks or bagels. Each time a snack is purchased the salesperson will mark off the number of dollars spent and when the card is running low on value, I will let you know and you can purchase another one. Please fill out the form below to purchase your child a snack card. As always, the snack bar and bagel stand will also accept cash.
